

Wilf Voss Biography

Wilf Voss is a professional event manager and master of ceremonies with over twenty years experience. He is a skilled professional who is as comfortable hosting a major conference as he is delivering an after dinner speech or hosting a charity event!

He delights audiences with his wit and charm and is able to maintain pace and interest during an event ensuring that it is delivered professionally and effectively.

Wilf runs his own company – Event-A-Tainment which specialises in event management, show hosting and consultancy. He is an expert in event health and safety, audio visual systems and project management.

Wilf is a published author having written both a novel and a books on business communications. As a trainer he develops and coaches individuals and business professionals to ensure that they have the very best tools to deliver highly effective presentations.

He is a highly skilled presenter and interviewer with experience with most of the major radio stations in the UK. He has given both live and pre-recorded interviews. Wilf can support a client's media campaigns with consultancy and by acting as a professional spokesperson.

Wilf lives in Royal Wootton Bassett with his wife Jane, his son Sam and his dog Stewie. In what little spare time he has he enjoys walking in the nearby countryside and working with local charities.

Event-A-Tainment

What people say about Wilf

"Wilf has enormous enthusiasm which he conveys through every aspect of any event he's involved with. He's very creative, loves a challenge and is at home in handling a variety of audiences in a relaxed but professional manner."

Director - Apple Europe

"Wilf breathes creativity! His ability to consistently deliver unique events will leave customers mesmerised, colleagues inspired and competitors green with envy!"

Marketing Manager - BT

"Our event simply wouldn't be the same without you... Your commentary starts at 8.45am on Saturday and doesn't cease until the last race on Sunday evening... you make it all look so simple and effortless but in reality it is a skill that turns the event into a class act."

Director – Horse Rangers Association

"I thought Wilf did a top job last night, underneath the jolliness he is a very organised man"

Jo Caulfield – Comedienne

"Wilf is very professional person and is also very entertaining and funny. I am happy to recommend him as event presenter and would be happy to attend an event presented by him."

Course Director - Trinity College, Dublin

"Wilf is an excellent presenter and ideas man, I have seen first-hand his management of large-scale conferences and events. Although Wilf teaches presentation skills, he himself has a flair and stage-presence that can't be taught. It is a natural ability that speaks volumes and has been pivotal to the success of many international events.."

Strategic Consultant - BCS - The Chartered Institute for IT

"I really do have to say a big thank you to Wilf he really helped the evening go with a swing."

Paula Kimmel – New College - Swindon

"Wilf is one of the most versatile people I know. He is a gifted presenter and host for medium and large events, who with apparent ease builds a bridge between the speakers and the audience, helping to get the message across."

Programme Manager - Exin

"Wilf has been hosting International Events for some years and has distinguished himself for his professionalism, being able to keep the meetings in line with the schedule while, at the same time, being funny and inquisitive, At the social events, he excels... I have no hesitation in recommending Wilf as an host for any Event."

Director - ECDL Portugal